

2016-17 Moody's Veterans Program Scholarships Announced

New York, NY (November 11, 2016) The Moody's Foundation recently announced the recipients of the 2016-2017 Moody's Veterans Program scholarships, as well as new grants to organizations that support veterans. Through this sponsorship as well as the many employee volunteer activities it supports, The Moody's Foundation has made a strong commitment to improving opportunities for veterans and easing their transition to the workforce and is proud to announce that Melisa Denis, recipient of a 2015-2016 scholarship has joined Moody's full-time.

"Veterans face a set of distinct challenges as they transition to civilian careers, and the key to building a better transition program is to provide opportunities for them to leverage their military experience and leadership strengths in the civilian workplace. Through its scholarships and grants, The Moody's Foundation is making a real impact in this area."

Linda Huber – EVP and Chief Financial Officer

Executive Sponsor of Moody's Veterans Employee Resource Group (ERG)

Moody's Veterans Scholars

Moody's Veterans Program awards five scholarships for $9,000 USD each (to be matched by the U.S.V.A. Yellow Ribbon Program) to selected veterans in the Columbia University General Studies Program.

2016-2017 Moody's Veterans Program Scholarship Recipients are:

- » Morgan Davis
U.S. Army veteran
- » Andrey Rublyov
U.S. Navy veteran
- » Samuel Weber
U.S. Air Force veteran
- » Matthew Fritz
U.S. Marine Corps veteran
- » Charles Wikman
U.S. Marine Corps veteran

About Moody's Corporation

Moody's is an essential component of the global capital markets, providing credit ratings, research, tools and analysis that contribute to transparent and integrated financial markets. Moody's Corporation (NYSE: MCO) is the parent company of Moody's Investors Service, which provides credit ratings and research covering debt instruments and securities, and Moody's Analytics, which offers leading-edge software, advisory services and research for credit and economic analysis and financial risk management. Both organizations are supported by Moody's Shared Services.